Civil Action No. 2:14-cv-00400

CHI JEN (DENNIS) LAN; POLAR STAR
MANAGEMENT LTD.; EZCONN
CORPORATION; and EGTRAN CORPORATION,

Defendants.

REQUEST FOR INTERNATIONAL JUDICIAL ASSISTANCE (LETTER ROGATORY) FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS UPON

CHENG SUN LAN

TO THE APPROPRIATE JUDICIAL AUTHORITY IN TAIWAN:

The United States District Court for the District of Nevada presents its compliments to the Appropriate Judicial Authority in Taiwan, and respectfully requests international judicial assistance to effect service of process upon Taiwanese Defendant CHENG SUN LAN in connection with a civil proceeding currently pending before this Court.

NATURE AND PURPOSE OF THE PROCEEDINGS

Plaintiffs Andes Industries, Inc. (“Andes”) and PCT International, Inc. (“PII”) bring this action against, inter alia, Defendants Cheng Sun Lan, Kun-Te Yang, Chi-Jen (Dennis) Lan, and EZconn Corporation (“EZconn”) for, inter alia, alleged breaches of fiduciary duty, usurpation of corporate opportunity, breaches of contract, tortious interference with prospective economic advantage, unfair competition, and civil conspiracy. Plaintiff Andes and its wholly owned subsidiary PII (collectively, “PCT”) assert that they own significant intellectual property, confidential proprietary information, and business operations. PCT alleges that Defendants have abused their positions as shareholders, lenders, and suppliers to PCT in an attempt to gain control over PCT’s intellectual property and proprietary information.

ALLEGATIONS AND RELIEF SOUGHT BY THE PLAINTIFFS

PCT submits that its relationship with Defendants dates to approximately 1997, when PCT contracted with EZconn to manufacture various PCT products, which are used in sophisticated broadband communication networks. PCT asserts that, in an effort to win PCT’s business, Cheng Sun Lan and others at EZconn assured PCT that they would take steps to properly protect PCT’s confidential proprietary information. PCT alleges that it then engaged EZconn as its contract manufacturer and provided EZconn with detailed confidential technical information regarding its proprietary product designs. PCT alleges that, because it viewed Mr. Lan as a trusted business partner, PCT and its shareholders allowed Mr. Lan to invest in Andes.

PCT alleges that Defendants, acting under Mr. Lan’s direction and control, usurped PCT’s intellectual property, confidential proprietary information, and corporate opportunities to enrich themselves at the expense of PCT and its other shareholders. PCT asserts that Defendants then sought to wrongfully gain complete ownership or control over PCT and its intellectual property assets. PCT claims that Defendants’ conduct includes breaches of fiduciary duty, aiding and abetting breaches of fiduciary duty, usurpation of corporate opportunity, breaches of contract, tortious interference with contract, tortious interference with prospective economic advantage, fraud, constructive fraud, breach of implied duty of good faith and fair dealing, unfair competition, unjust enrichment, and civil conspiracy.

PCT asks this Court to adjudge that Defendants acted in violation of their duties under various doctrines of law, and that Defendants be held liable for damages resulting from these acts.
